IBFD – International Merger & Acquisitions Guide: Austrian Chapter on Corporate and Tax law by Christoph Nauer and Gerald Schachner, bpv Hügel

The International Bureau of Fiscal Documentation (IBFD) is one of the world's foremost authority on cross-border taxation. Tax practitioners from all over the world rely on its high-quality, independent tax research. Christoph Nauer and Gerald Schachner, bpv Hügel, revised the Austrian Chapter of the IBFD Merger & Acquisitions Guide on Corporate and Tax law.

Vienna/Mödling, 11 January 2018. The International Bureau of Fiscal Documentation (IBFD) was established in 1938 to supply information concerning tax law and to stimulate the development of tax science. Today the IBFD as (non profit) foundation is the world's foremost authority on cross-border taxation with the ultimate goal to promote and disseminate the understanding of cross-border taxation at the highest level around the world. Tax practitioners from all over the world rely on IBFD's high-quality, independent tax research.

Christoph Nauer (Partner, Corporate/M&A, Capital Markets) and Gerald Schachner (Partner, Head of Tax Practise) revised the Austrian Chapter of the IBFD Merger & Acquisitions Guide on Corporate and Tax law.
