bpv Huegel advises Verbund AG on the acquisition of a 10.15 MW wind farm in Burgenland

Vienna, April 2024. bpv Huegel has advised Verbund AG on the acquisition of a wind farm in the Austrian federal state of Burgenland with a total nominal output of 10.15 MW. The wind farm was sold in a bidding process. The seller is a private developer and operator of wind farms.

Thomas Lettau (Partner, Co-Head Corporate/M&A) led the bpv Huegel team which advised Verbund AG on all legal aspects of the successful transaction. In addition to corporate law matters and energy law expertise, the advice included the structuring of the transaction as well as the negotiation and finalisation of the transaction documents.

bpv Huegel regularly advises energy suppliers and investors on the acquisition and sale of assets and equity interests in the energy sector, including Macquarie European Infrastructure Fund 4 on the sale of its stake in Energie Steiermark.
