bpv Huegel advises EAVISTA on the acquisition of the majority stake in card complete Service Bank AG

EAVISTA is acquiring 75.1% of the shares in card complete Service Bank AG from UniCredit Bank Austria and Raiffeisen Bank International.

Vienna, 19 February 2025. bpv Huegel advises EAVISTA Beteiligungsverwaltungs GmbH on the acquisition of 75.1% of the shares in card complete Service Bank AG. card complete Service Bank AG is a leading provider of credit card and payment solutions for private and corporate customers.

The share purchase agreement was concluded on Monday this week, with UniCredit Bank Austria AG (50.1%) and Raiffeisen-Invest-Gesellschaft m.b.H. (25%) (group company of Raiffeisen Bank International AG) selling their shares to EAVISTA. AVZ GmbH (AVZ Privatstiftung) remains as shareholder. Closing of the share purchase agreement is expected to take place after approval by the regulatory authorities.

For the credit card portfolios of customers of UniCredit Bank Austria and banks of the Austrian Raiffeisen sector the two selling shareholders (UniCredit Bank Austria and Raiffeisen Bank International) entered into an agreement with card complete to offer credit cards directly to those customers.

EAVISTA Beteiligungsverwaltungs GmbH is owned by Arif Babayev, a British entrepreneur, and is managed together with Nurlan Zhagiparov, co-founder of the UK-based payment services provider DNA Payments Limited. The two experts in financial technology and innovation have more than 20 years of experience in the banking and financial services industry.

“The team of bpv Huegel guided us to the signing of this transaction with their outstanding market and in-depth transactional expertise in the banking and payment services sector,” comments Arif Babayev.

“We are very pleased to have supported EAVISTA with the experienced team around Arif Babayev and Nurlan Zhagiparov in this landmark transaction in the Austrian payment services industry,” emphasises Christoph Nauer, partner at bpv Huegel leading on the transaction.
