bpv HÜGEL

PRESS RELEASE

bpv Huegel strengthens its Corporate/M&A team with Attorney at Law Florian Dollenz

The corporate law specialist advises companies and their owners on transactions and reorganizations, particularly at the intersection with capital markets law.

Vienna, 12 November 2026. Florian Dollenz (37) advises companies and shareholders on a broad range of corporate law matters, with a particular focus on domestic and cross-border M&A transactions and corporate restructurings. He also brings extensive expertise in matters at the intersection of corporate and capital markets law. In addition, he advises entrepreneurial families and private clients on private foundation law, succession planning and inheritance matters.

Prior to joining bpv Huegel, Florian gained professional experience at Binder Grösswang and PwC Legal, as well as in independent legal practice.

After completing his law degree, he worked for four years as a university assistant at the Institute for Corporate Law and International Business Law at the University of Graz. He earned his doctorate with a dissertation on self-dealing in corporate law. For his academic work, he received the Graf Hardegg Foundation Award as well as a research fellowship from the Julius Raab Foundation.

He is a co-author of legal commentaries on the Austrian Stock Corporation Act and the Austrian Conversion Act and regularly contributes to legal publications. He also shares his expertise as a lecturer at the University of Applied Sciences Wiener Neustadt.

"With Florian, we are gaining an advisor who combines transactional experience with academic depth. We are very much looking forward to working with him," says Christoph Nauer, Co-Managing Partner of bpv Huegel.

"bpv Huegel is a leading firm for complex transactions and structuring. I look forward to contributing my experience and further developing our practice together with the team," says Florian Dollenz.

About bpv Huegel

As one of Austria's leading law firms, bpv Huegel advises national and international clients in all sectors. It is regarded as the first address for highly complex mandates, the handling of which requires specialised tax and legal knowledge, many years of experience and economic understanding.

With its Brussels office, bpv Huegel has a competence centre for EU law, European merger and antitrust law as well as regulatory and public procurement law located directly at the European institutions. bpv Huegel is a member of the "bpv LEGAL" alliance with offices in Bratislava, Bucharest, Budapest and Prague and thus offers tailor-made solutions throughout CEE. In addition, the firm has long-standing cooperation agreements with leading international law firms worldwide. The full-service law firm was founded in 1979 and is represented in Austria by offices in Vienna, Baden and Salzburg, where it employs around 100 staff, including around 50 lawyers.
