bpv HÜGEL

PRESS RELEASE

bpv Huegel further strengthens its Competition & Antitrust practice with Attorney at Law Mirko Marjanovic

With his appointment, bpv Huegel gains an experienced advisor with extensive expertise in EU and Austrian competition law, merger control and foreign direct investment screening proceedings.

Vienna, 19 November 2026. bpv Huegel has expanded its Competition & Antitrust team with the arrival of Mirko Marjanovic (33), who joined the firm as an Attorney at Law in mid-November.

Mirko Marjanovic advises on EU and Austrian competition law, including antitrust damages claims, as well as foreign direct investment (FDI) screening proceedings and international trade law matters. He has experience in regulated sectors such as energy, rail and telecommunications, as well as in transport, emerging technologies and the Internet of Things (IoT), construction and engineering, automotive, pharmaceuticals and chemicals.

Mirko Marjanovic joins bpv Huegel from Borealis (now Borouge International), where he served as Legal Counsel. Prior to that, he gained several years of experience advising on competition and antitrust matters at a Vienna-based commercial law firm, most recently as an Attorney at Law.

Mirko Marjanovic has advised on complex antitrust proceedings before the European Commission and the EU Courts. He has also advised on the merger control and foreign investment screening aspects of cross-border transactions in the pharmaceutical, mobility and technology sectors. In telecommunications law, he has regulatory experience, particularly in satellite communications and connected car solutions.

"With Mirko, we are gaining an internationally experienced competition law specialist who also brings an in-house legal perspective from his time at Borealis. In addition, he has particular expertise in emerging technologies. I am delighted that Mirko is bringing his experience to our team", says Astrid Ablasser-Neuhuber, Partner and Head of the Competition & Antitrust practice.

Mirko Marjanovic is the author of several specialist publications on competition and commercial law. In addition to German and English, he speaks Bosnian/Croatian/Serbian and Italian.

About bpv Huegel

As one of Austria's leading law firms, bpv Huegel advises national and international clients in all sectors. It is regarded as the first address for highly complex mandates, the handling of which requires specialised tax and legal knowledge, many years of experience and economic understanding.
